FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

I HEART MARKET POPS UP AT DECOREX DURBAN

A proudly Durban initiative, the I heart Market takes place monthly at Moses Mabhida Stadium and serves as a lively platform for a vibrant selection of carefully chosen traders selling local hand made products.

We are excited to announce that this ever-popular local market will be taking place alongside this year's Decorex Durban on Saturday 19th March.

Adding to the array of inspiring products on offer from KwaZulu-Natal's design leaders and exciting new local players, the I heart Pop Up Market at Decorex Durban will give visitors a wide choice of limited-edition pieces, from local fashion to children's toys, homeware, art, ceramics, recycled and repurposed products, jewellery, second-hand collectables and vintage clothing.

"The I heart Market at Decorex Durban will offer Durbanites a truly unique shopping experience, adding the infectious energy of the market vibe to the KwaZulu-Natal leg of the exhibition," says Sian Gutstadt, Portfolio Director of Decorex SA. "What's more, because traders will be drawn predominantly from Durban and its surrounds, the Market will be a truly local affair," she adds.

"I heart Market are pleased as punch to team up with Decorex Durban 2016," says I heart Market's Anna Savage. "We look forward to showing off our carefully curated selection of local design, tasty foods, innovative fashion, crafty homeware and more."

Indeed, the I heart Market at Decorex Durban is the place to meet from 10am to 4pm on the Saturday of the expo. The market, which will be held undercover on the lawns at the Durban Exhibition Centre, will also feature a seating area where visitors can rest shopping-weary legs while enjoying something to eat and drink.

From thrifty finds to wise buys, not to mention flavours to satisfy even the most demanding taste buds, the I heart Market at Decorex Durban promises to offer a colourful addition to KwaZulu-Natal's leading design expo.
